BIG SANDY NEWS.

FRIDAY, MAY 12, 1893.

The Country Editor's Plaint.

Lives of great men oft remind us Honest men won't stand a chance;
The more we work there grows behind us Bigger patches on our pants.

Our pants once new and glossy Now are stripes of different hue, All because subscribers longer And won't pay in what is due.

Then let us all be up and doing—Send your mite however small,
Or when the snow of winter strikes us We shall have no pants at all.

—Exchange.

Pleasure and Sorrow.

Our pleasures are greatly outweighed By our sorrows;
Sages and rhyming philosophers say it,
This is the size of the dollar one borrows:

O
But it looks just like this when you go to repay it.

He had a hearing before Commissioner Stewart, who held him in answer at United States court.Produce (especially eggs and bacon) has been very scarce in the local market for some time. The scarcity is due to the fact that buyers are traveling through the country gathering produce for shipment to Chicago. One of our merchants says he does not expect to see the price of eggs below 12 cents a dozen this summer.A complaint has come in against the Homestead correspondent, using the nom de plume "Black Eye." It charges false statements made with the intention of injury. We have so often denounced this sort of thing in correspondents that we think it unnecessary to say more than to state that our denunciations apply to this case as well as to all others which have or may hereafter come to light.On account of the General As-

Attorneys Alex. Luckey, Stewart, and Stewart, and G. W. Caudle have been attending court in Martin county.The road will be reorganized at once. The work of construction will then be pushed with alacrity.
It will be built across the mountains to Ashland, Ky., this summer.Owing to the fact that the "three Cs" and the C. P. and R. roads represent almost the same interests, their consolidation has been looked upon as inevitable. They can be connected by the latter's extension from Portsmouth to Charleston.When Mr. Hunt was questioned about this he said that it was true that certain interests which he represented were likewise interested in the C. P. and V. but he says that the latter road is a well equipped, well organized and well paying corporation, while the former is in a state of chaos just at present.When asked what would be the first step the new company would take, Mr. Hunt replied:The road will be reorganized at once. The work of construction will then be pushed with alacrity.It will be built across the mountains to Ashland, Ky., this summer.You will be surprised at the assortment and elegance of Mrs.
Frazier's line of millinery goods. Go and see them.W. H. Billups is considering the propriety of removing to Ashland him and his family.The contract for painting the new residence of A. J. Hatcher has been let to H. E. Lee. Lee gets all the field work.We outsiders are wondering what the Miners and Odd Fellows are doing toward building the hall they have been talking of.The wife of Harrison Wilson died at her home on Lick Creek on Tuesday evening. She had sickness for several weeks.For SALE.—Have a cow and a
